far as I can learn, were characterized by moderation. I have not given you the words of Dostie's speech, as the version published was denied.

from what I have learned of the man I believe they were interperate. Convention assembly. M. M. 30th the timid members absenting themselves, because the tone of the Institute present was ominous of trouble. I think there were about fifty-six members present. In from the Mechanical Institute, some twenty, and in the Institute a number of colored men, probably one hundred and fifty. Among those inside and outside there might be a hundred and thirty. At the tenth man. About 1 P. M. from sixty to one hundred and thirty colored men, marched up Burgundy street and across Canal street toward the Convention, carrying an American flag. These men had about one pistol to every ten men, and canes and clubs were used as weapons. The rioting and looting occurred. There were many spectators on the street, and their manner and tone toward the procession unfriendly. A shot was fired, of whom I am not able to state, but believe it have been fired by a policeman or some colored man in the procession. This led to other shooting and shooting occurred. On the other side of the front of the Institute there was some throwing of brickbats by both sides. The police who had been held well in hand, were vigorously marched to the scene of disorder. The procession entered the Institute with the curled between a building outside, a force of colored men, and a shot was again fired by one of the parties, which led to an indiscriminate fire on the building through the windows by the policemen. This had been going on for a short time when a white flag was displayed from the building. Immediately thereafter the firing ceased and the police rushed into the building. From the testimony of wounded men and others who were inside the building, the policemen opened an indiscriminate fire upon the audience until they had emptied their weapons. Those who were not killed were inside barricaded in the door. The door was broken in and the firing again commenced when many of the colored and white people either escaped through the door or were passed by the policemen inside, but as they came out the policemen were ordered the circle nearest the building to open up and fire. The men again fired upon by the citizens that formed the outer circle. Many of those wounded and taken to the hospital were killed. Some were in prisoners and others who were prisoners are not wounded were fired upon by their captives and by citizens. The wounded were stable while on the ground and their heads were beaten with bricks. In the yard of the building, whither some of the colored men had escaped and partially secreted themselves, they were fired upon and killed or wounded by policemen. Some men were killed and wounded several squares from the scene. Members men while in their hands as prisoners—some of them mortally. The immediate cause of the terrible affair was the assembling of this convention. The remote cause, the bitter and antagonistic feeling which has been growing in this community since the advent of the present Mayor, is in the background. The immediate force selected many desperate men and some of them known murderers. People of clear vision were overawed by want of confidence in the Mayor and fear of the Thugs, many of whom had selected for his police force. I have felt quite sure that the cause of this feeling of lack of confidence on this subject and have heard them express fear and want of confidence in Mayor Munroe ever since the intimidation of this last convention.

I must condemn the course of several of the city papers for supporting by their articles the bigoted feelings of bad men. As to the mercenary manner in which the Convention was broken up, I feel obliged to confess strong repugnance. It is useless to attempt to disguise the hostility that exists on the part of a great many here towards Northern men, and this unfortunate affair has so precipitated matters that there is now a great deal of what may be called "men's men"; whether they can live here without being in constant dread or not; whether they can be protected in life and property, and have justice in the courts. If this matter is permitted to pass over without a thorough and of the same kind, not only here, but in other places. No steps have as yet been taken by the civil authorities to arrest citizens who were engaged in this massacre, or policemen who were engaged in such cruelties. The members of the mob are being let off by grand jury, and the police are being let off by the bail. I am sure that the people are entitled to know whether the civil authorities can mete out ample justice to the guilty parties on both sides. I must say that it is my opinion unequivocally that they cannot. Judge Abel, who controls the grand jury, has been watching for nearly a year the progress of the peace movement, and I now consider one of the most dangerous men that we have here to the peace and safety of the city. The leading men of the convention

King, Outler, Hahn and others, have been political agitators, and are bad men. I regret to say that the course of Gov. Wells has been vacillating, and that during the late trouble he has shown very little of the man.

A Word from Oxford.

HARTFORD, Aug. 28, 1866.

MR. EDITOR.—On looking over the list of V. Presidents in the late convention at Philadelphia, I was somewhat surprised by not seeing the name of Solon Chase, Esq., of Turner among the fortunate ones. They could be

When Mr. Chase was elected a representative to the Legislature from Turner and Livermore some had doubts of his loyalty and his votes were watched with an eagle eye. But when he replied to the celebrated speech of the great Copperhead of Maine, every doubt was removed. That reply was echoed and re-echoed among the hills and dales of old Oxford. "Great is Solomon! David has slain Goliath!"

Johnson passed away and Chase still lived to claim upon that sheet that was let down in Philadelphia where were all manner of Copperheads, where the voice of Raymond was heard, "What Johnson has cleansed call the not treason." The sheet being held at the corners by Vallandigham, Wood, Doolittle and Blair, was let down only once. The hugging scene could not be surpassed so far as it was. The Copperheads of Massachusetts and the rebels of South Carolina should have been escorted by Stevens and Johnson arm-in-arm complete the scene, as the pistol had throned or

and dethroned the other.

As Johnson doubts the existence of Congress why did he spend so much time over his stupid veto? Did he not know the veto can only be used when a majority of Congress passes the law? Why did he lay his appointment before a body that was not the Senate? The questions cannot be solved by many. Is it the duty of that humble individual of the White House to inform his constituents? There not an oath of office to respect? As Mr. Chase's influence in this Congressional District is at an end there is some chance for re-election of Mr. Perham, who has backed enough to rise up in "a body called or assumto be the Congress" and proclaim the truth, some have bowed their neck to the instigate of Rebellion. What is left of Mr. Chase will frighten the Oxford Bears; their growl will be heard in September.

Discussion between Messrs. Blaine and Pillsbury.

Some days since Mr. Pillsbury, the Coppe head candidate for Governor, challenged Ge Chamberlain to a public discussion of the sues of the campaign. Mr. Pillsbury stated his note that in doing so he acted in accordance with the instructions of the Convention that nominated him.

Gen. Chamberlain replied that the state of his health was such as to forbid his engaging in a prolonged discussion, and it is understood that his medical adviser peremptorily forbade it.

The General stated however that while he regretted his inability to take part in the discussion, he had no doubt that much good might result from it and that he would refer Mr. Pillsbury's letter to the Union State Committee in order that they might take measures

The Union State Committee, after duly considering the matter, designated Mr. Blaine Representative in Congress from the third district, as a substitute for Gen. Chamberlain, and it has been agreed that discussions between Messrs. Blaine and Pillsbury shall take place as follows:

Joint Resolution Proposing an Amendment to the Constitution of the United States:

Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following article be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States, to be ratified by three-fourths of said Legislatures, shall be valid as part of the Constitution of the United States:

ARTICLE.—

SECTION 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law, or deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

SECTION 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote in any election for the choice of Electors, President and Vice President of the United States, Representatives in Congress, Executive or Judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of said State, who are twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion, or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

SECTION 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President or Vice President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or be commissioned as an officer in the Army or Navy, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer or member of the State Legislature, or as an Executive or Judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemies thereof; but Congress may enforce the provisions of this article by appropriate legislation.

SECTION 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing rebellion or insurrection, shall not be questioned; but neither shall the validity of claims for the payment of such debts, or for the payment of any other claims, be questioned.
